Gwenhwyfar The White Spirit Mercedes

Mercedes Lackey's take on the Arthurian legends centers around a different version of Guinevere - that Arthur married three women by the same name. The story centers around the third wife, starting as a young girl, third-born and allowed to follow the Warrior's Path instead of that of the Ladies, and follows her through her time as War Chief and into an arranged marriage with Arthur, old ...

Editions for Gwenhwyfar: The White Spirit by Mercedes Lackey

Gwenhwyfar: The White Spirit takes the best parts of the style I'm used to, but combines them with a less simple story (and one that's all the more emotionally affecting because of that). Mercedes also takes a very original and unique view of the Arthurian tale, one that Arthur and his companions only marginally figure into.

Gwenhwyfar : the White Spirit (Book, 2010) [WorldCat.org]

The image of Gwenhwyfar as the White Spirit is haunting and quite original. For me, the part where Lackey really excels has to do with the references to Religion. Naturally, there is the duality of the Old Religion and the New, but not in a fight against each other.
