Canadian Indigenous author, Richard Wagamese's "Medicine Walk" is a powerful, moving story of 16 year old Franklin Starlight's struggle with identity and forgiveness. Frank's estranged, dying, alcoholic father has one request of the boy. That he take him into the backwoods country of the B.C. Interior and bury him in the Obijwe warrior tradition.

Medicine Walk by Richard Wagamese - Goodreads

The journey in "Medicine Walk" is both physical and metaphorical. This isn't a new concept in literature, but Wagamese does it with real skill. There is nothing about this book I don't like, but what really stood out for me was the characters and the dialogue, and how the dialogue reveals character.
