History. Villains started out as a group of people who wanted to use their new gifts to benefit themselves instead of helping others. Unlike heroes, these people wanted to use their Quirks to commit crime and evil. According to Naomasa Tsukauchi, in the current age, the crime rate committed by villains is quite low as a result of being pressurized by the huge amount of heroes.

We even started including DC heroes and villains into the mix at one point, so you'll see me mentioning one or two, but it's largely the same problem. For instance, Iron Man and Batman need their weapons, there are also a couple of overpowered shields, God hammers and stuff like that, not to mention Infinity Stones and God Tier items.
